

SUMMARY OF TAPE W113 INTERVIEW WITH DAN WOOD

February 20, 1986

Interviewer: Jeff Kraakevik

Dan Wood grew up visiting and eventually living in Evergreen. Although a short synopsis, his memories of his step grandfather, "Charcoal Charlie" and other relatives and residents of the area are told with affection. He gives an insight into the activities of young people in the 1950's and 1960's. His feelings for the quality of life in the Evergreen area are strong. He met and brought "the love of his life" to live in Evergreen, and despite changes brought about by growth, they continue to feel it is a wonderful place.
