Hiwan Homestead Museum is owned and operated by Jefferson County Open Space. This 17-room log lodge was placed on the National Register of Historic Places because of its unique construction. Hiwan 1890-1930 era rooms illustrate a comfortable style of early mountain living.

As a local history museum, it maintains active craft and interpretive school programs as well as changing exhibitions, which are sponsored by the Jefferson County Historical Society.

Special tours and programs may be arranged. Groups of ten or more should make price reservations. The Hiwan Homestead Museum telephone number is 720-497-7650.
