Colorado Authors, Colorado Stories

Fresh Perspectives on Front Range History with local authors

Debra Faulkner, Mike Strunk, Ben Fogelberg & Steve Grinstead

Debra Faulkner discusses Touching Tomorrow: The Emily Griffith Story, her award-winning biography of Denver's remarkable education pioneer and founder of the Opportunity School. Faulkner will also talk about writing the recently published Colorado: An Illustrated History of the Highest State, co-authored with historian Tom Noel.

Mike Strunk shares stunning photographs from his new coffee table book, Portraits of Preservation, Protected Lands & Ranches of Colorado's Front Range and recounts the fascinating tales of old-time mountain families, their historic ranches and the success stories behind their preservation in the mountains west of Denver.

Ben Fogelberg & Steve Grinstead of the Colorado Historical Society present Walking Into Colorado's Past: 50 Front Range History Hikes. Enjoy a slide show from the book that "... proves that human history enriches natural history." Hikes for all levels take you to homesteads, old rail lines, mines, rock art, dinosaur tracks, a petrified forest, the Hayman burn, even a crashed B-17 bomber!
